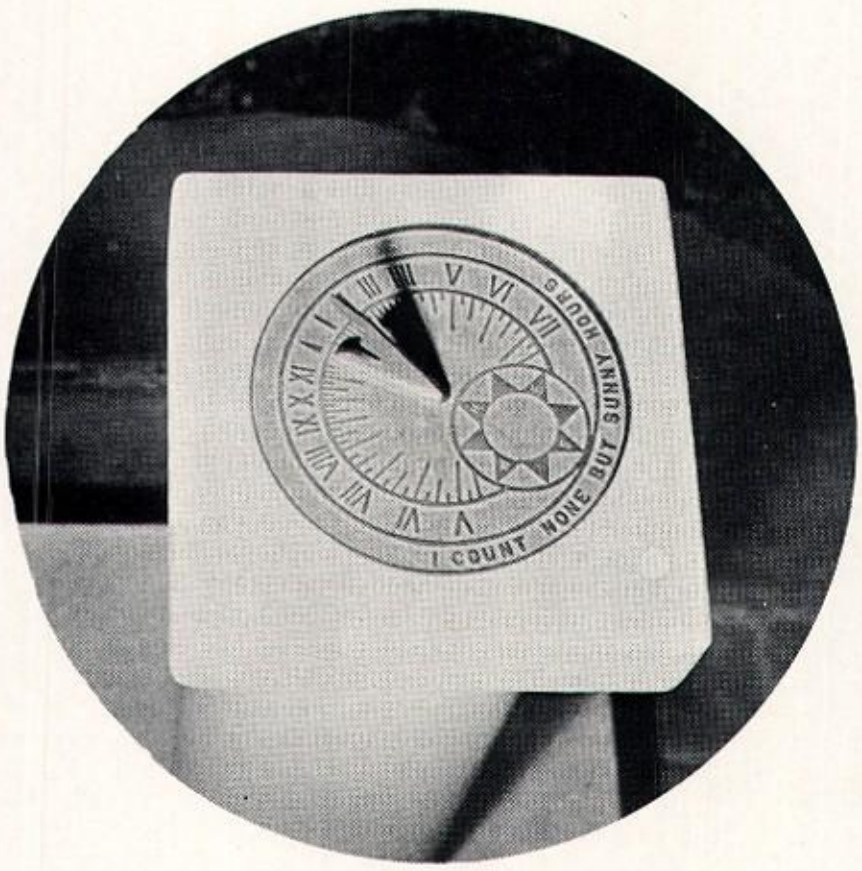
dedication

We, the class of 1957, dedicate this yearbook to Dolores Boyer and Larry Kunkel. Dolores and Larry, classmates and friends to all who knew them, will live in the hearts of many people. Wherever they went, their good nature, appealing personality, and friendliness went with them.

Larry, who attended Campus Junior High School, was a sophomore at KAHS when tragedy struck. At school he was a member of the Junior Varsity Basketball Team. Sports best liked by Larry were hunting, fishing, roller skating, and especially basketball. Larry, known to his friends as "Cookie" or "Vince," was very successful at his main purpose in life—making people happy. In the words of Dr. Schmoyer, "Larry, a victim of a power-made, speed-crazed age, need not have died in vain, if, in humility, we have learned that lesson."

Dolores, who lived on a dairy farm near Dryville, will always be remembered for her quiet but very friendly personality. At KAHS "Dolly" was an active member of the Future Homemakers of America. Her favorite hobbies included embroidering, collecting post cards, working in her family's yard and singing on the church choir in Dryville. Dolores, neat and conscientious in all her work, was a classmate we were all proud to call our friend.

Long will Larry and Dolores be remembered, not how they died, but how they lived. They brought happiness into the lives of everyone, and, by doing so, to themselves also.



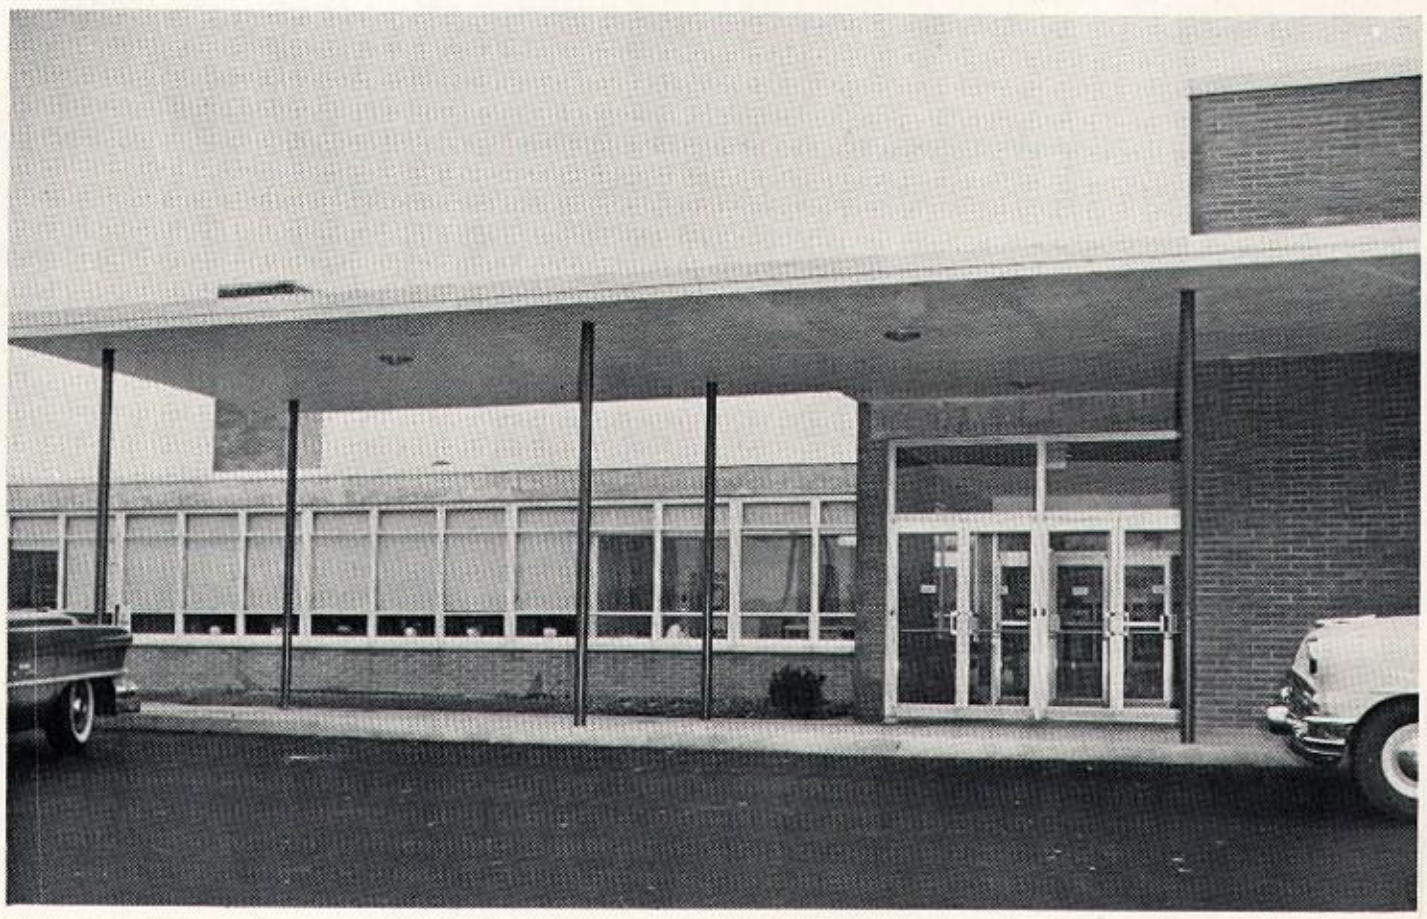
foreword

"For a day and a night and a morrow, that his strength might endure for a span . . ." Swinburne

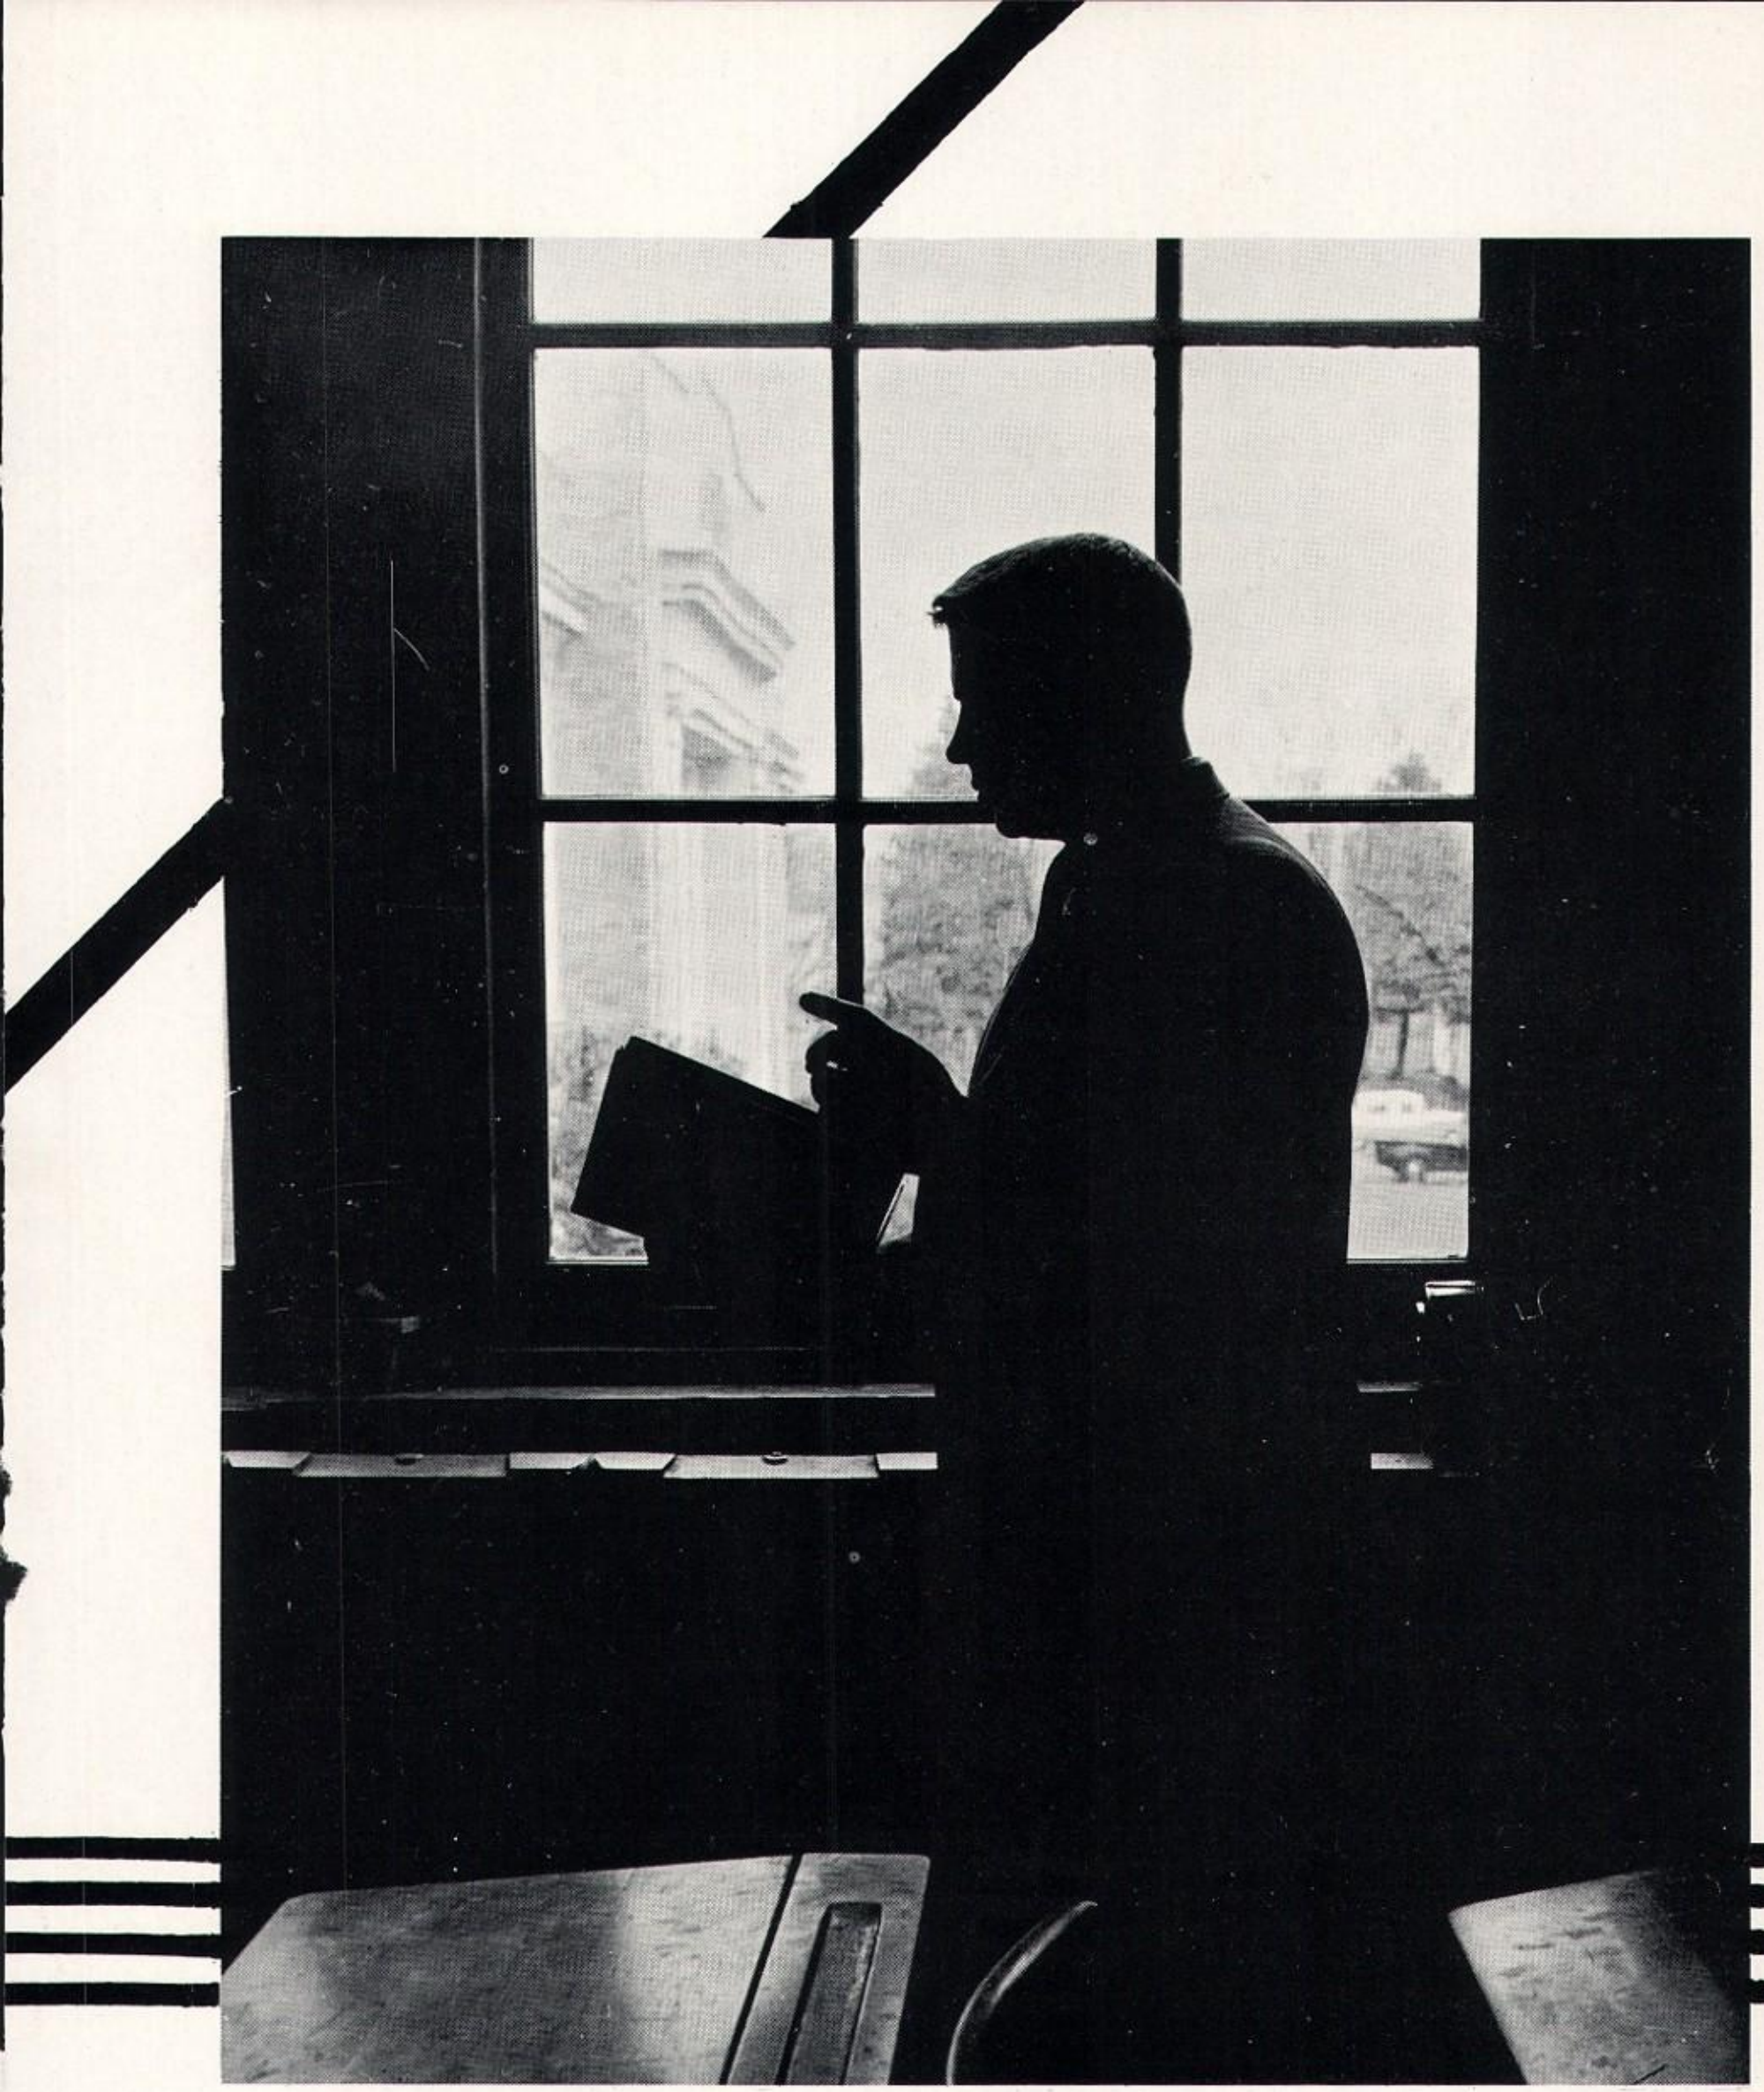
As a fixture representing the past, the sundial counted our daylight hours. Through progress a new kind of time piece, the scoreboard, was added to mark tense evening moments.

Nineteen hundred fifty-seven saw a building for the future completed in the present. The opportunity to live in its progressive sphere was not ours; it is reserved for the seniors of tomorrow.

The well-worn old and the unblemished new have circumscribed our school days in time.



administration and faculty



A Message to the Class of 1957:

You have been laying the educational foundation of life for the past twelve years. Little by little the tools of life have been placed into your hands.

Your diploma is evidence that you have learned much. You have developed certain skills and mastered the principles necessary for you to lead a good, honest life as a respected, contributing citizen.

Please accept my sincere congratulations for these accomplishments. At the same time bear in mind that your high school commencement signifies only a beginning. Tomorrow you will be the newest employee, the raw recruit, the green freshman, the student nurse, or the new bride. Your achievement will depend upon the use made of the knowledge gained in school.

Knowledge and skills are of little value unless applied. To achieve one must set high goals, apply knowledge, work hard, show determination, believe in Divine Guidance, and keep going even in the face of occasional disappointments. Success comes only through earning it.

My personal good wishes go with each of you. May you find success and happiness in life.

Paul C. Dunkelberger

PAUL C. DUNKELBERGER
B.S., M.S., M.A.
Supervising Principal of Area Schools

Message to Class of 1957:

The purpose of your education and training at this school was to help make you better citizens, better men and women, and better and more useful members of society. We have given you knowledge, but knowledge in itself is not enough.

Much of our knowledge is of material purpose and not spiritual value. You must learn how to live or your education will be vain. You must have an understanding of spiritual values and a strong, substantial purpose in life or you will live in disappointment and despair.

I hope your high school has provided you with an education and the knowledge gained here to continue with further studies or to endeavor to fit yourself into the useful life you will lead after graduating from high school. Although this may mean the end of study, as such, for many of you, it is by no means the end of learning. We know that the years to come and the great school of experience will add much to your store of knowledge.

May the education you have received and that which you plan give you independence of character and an intelligently discriminating mind and lead you far along moral, industrial, and intellectual roads.

Message to the Class of 1957:

Great effort has been made to impart to you much factual knowledge and understanding. In reality this has been but a means to an end and is of small importance when we consider the greater values which you should have derived from your education. Integrity, sincerity, humility, respect for your fellow man, and certainly the ability to face the many problems of life are of greater consequence.

Apply to your daily living what you have learned. Give to life and do not always expect to receive. Learn to enjoy hard work.

To each one of you, I wish happiness and success.

COLORS	MOTTO	FLOWER
Navy blue and white	"The future is ours—use it well"	Blue-tinted carnation

Many years ago as youngsters, it seemed like ages and ages until the day when we would finally become seniors. Now here we are, wondering just how the time could have passed so quickly. Last fall, as we stepped into the doorway for our last year at K.A.H.S., we stepped with doubt, wondering just what it would be like to be seniors, what kind of memories the senior year would bring, and perhaps the biggest question in our minds, "What will the future hold?"

We have always looked up to previous seniors, using them as examples. Now it seems strange that so soon the underclassmen are looking up to us.

In spite of all our struggles and hard work, our senior year has brought us many fine memories, our friends, teachers, social gatherings, classes, and best of all, the fun we shared. Now that we are ready to step into the world on our own, we must always remember that the future is ours.

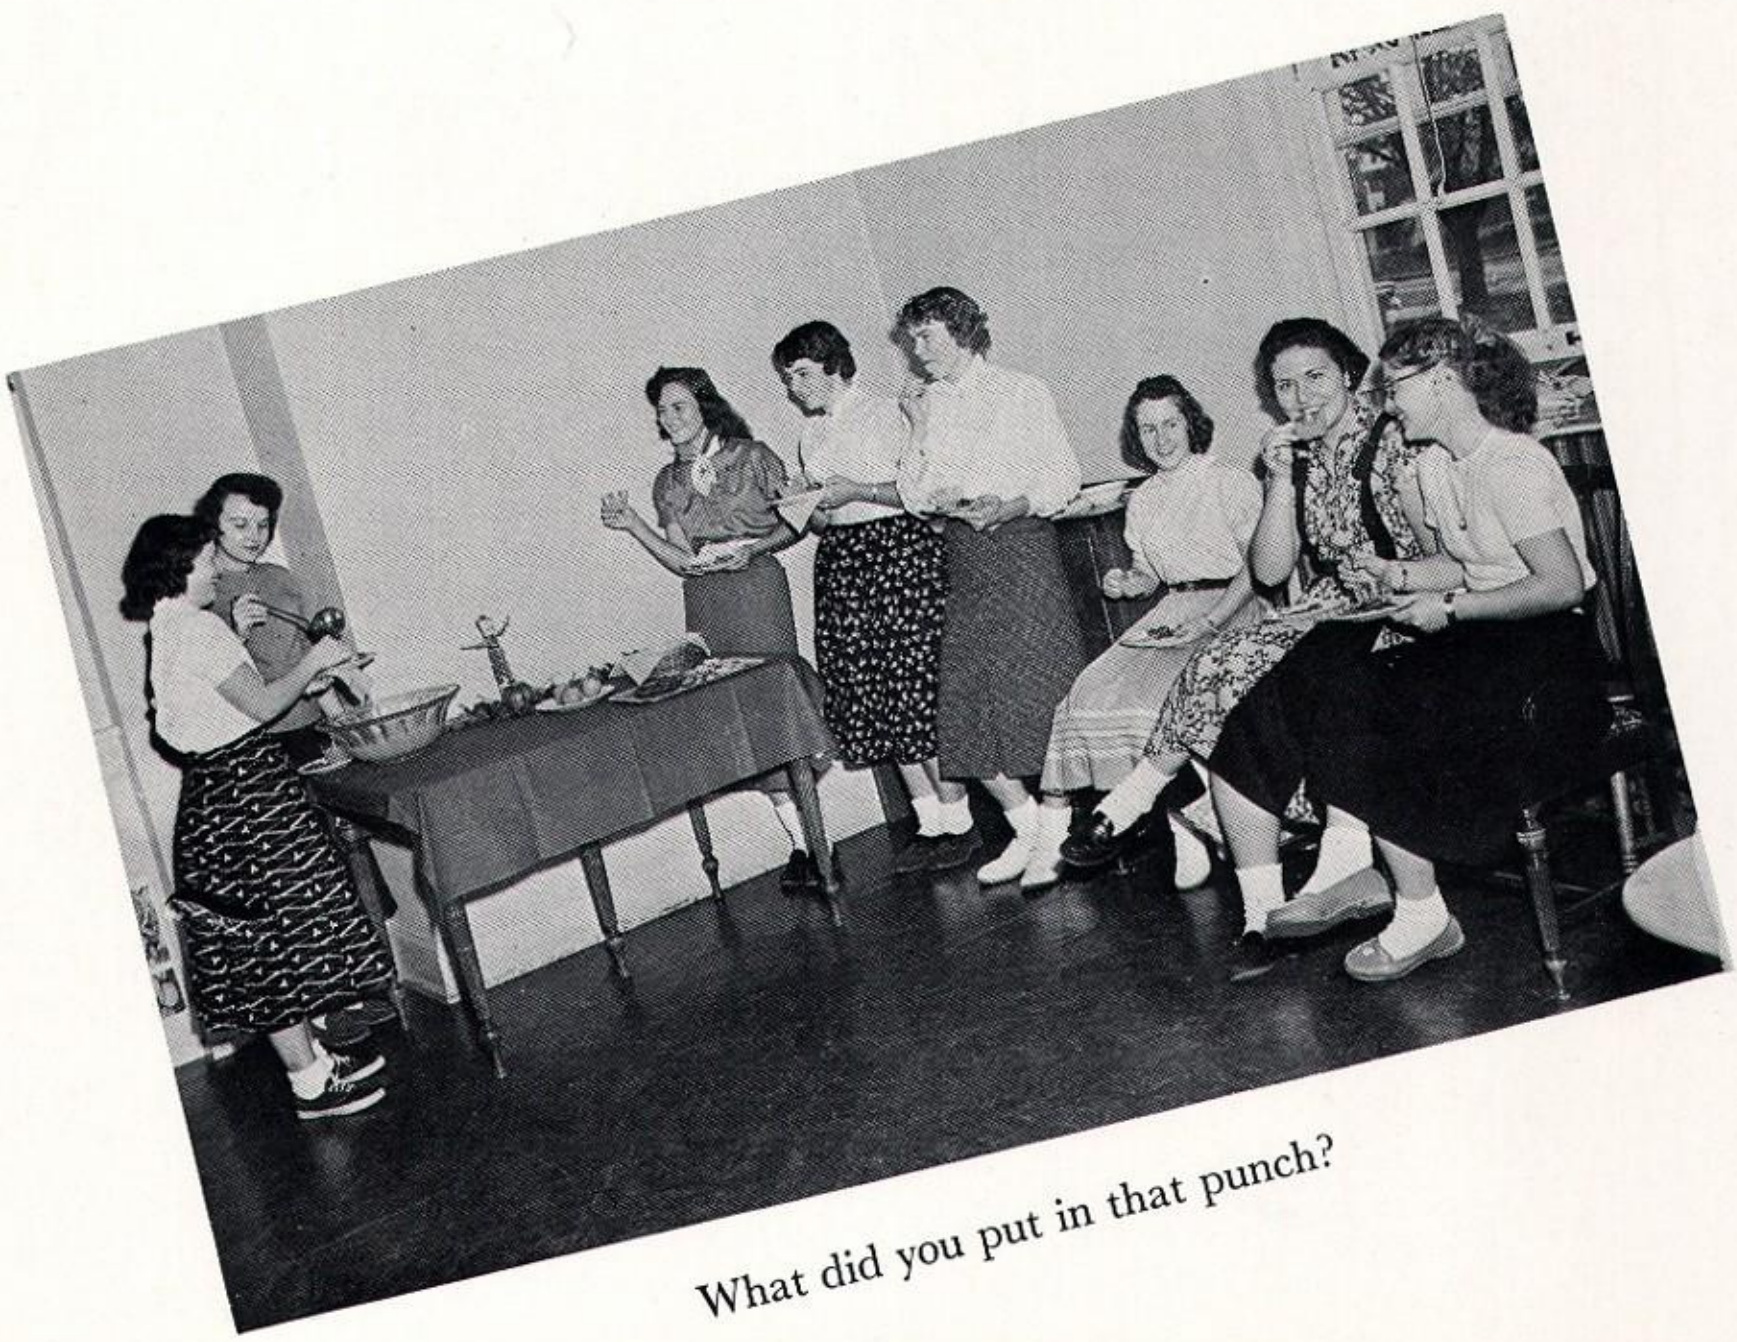
We're in for double trouble.

Don't fight, girls; there's enough for everyone.

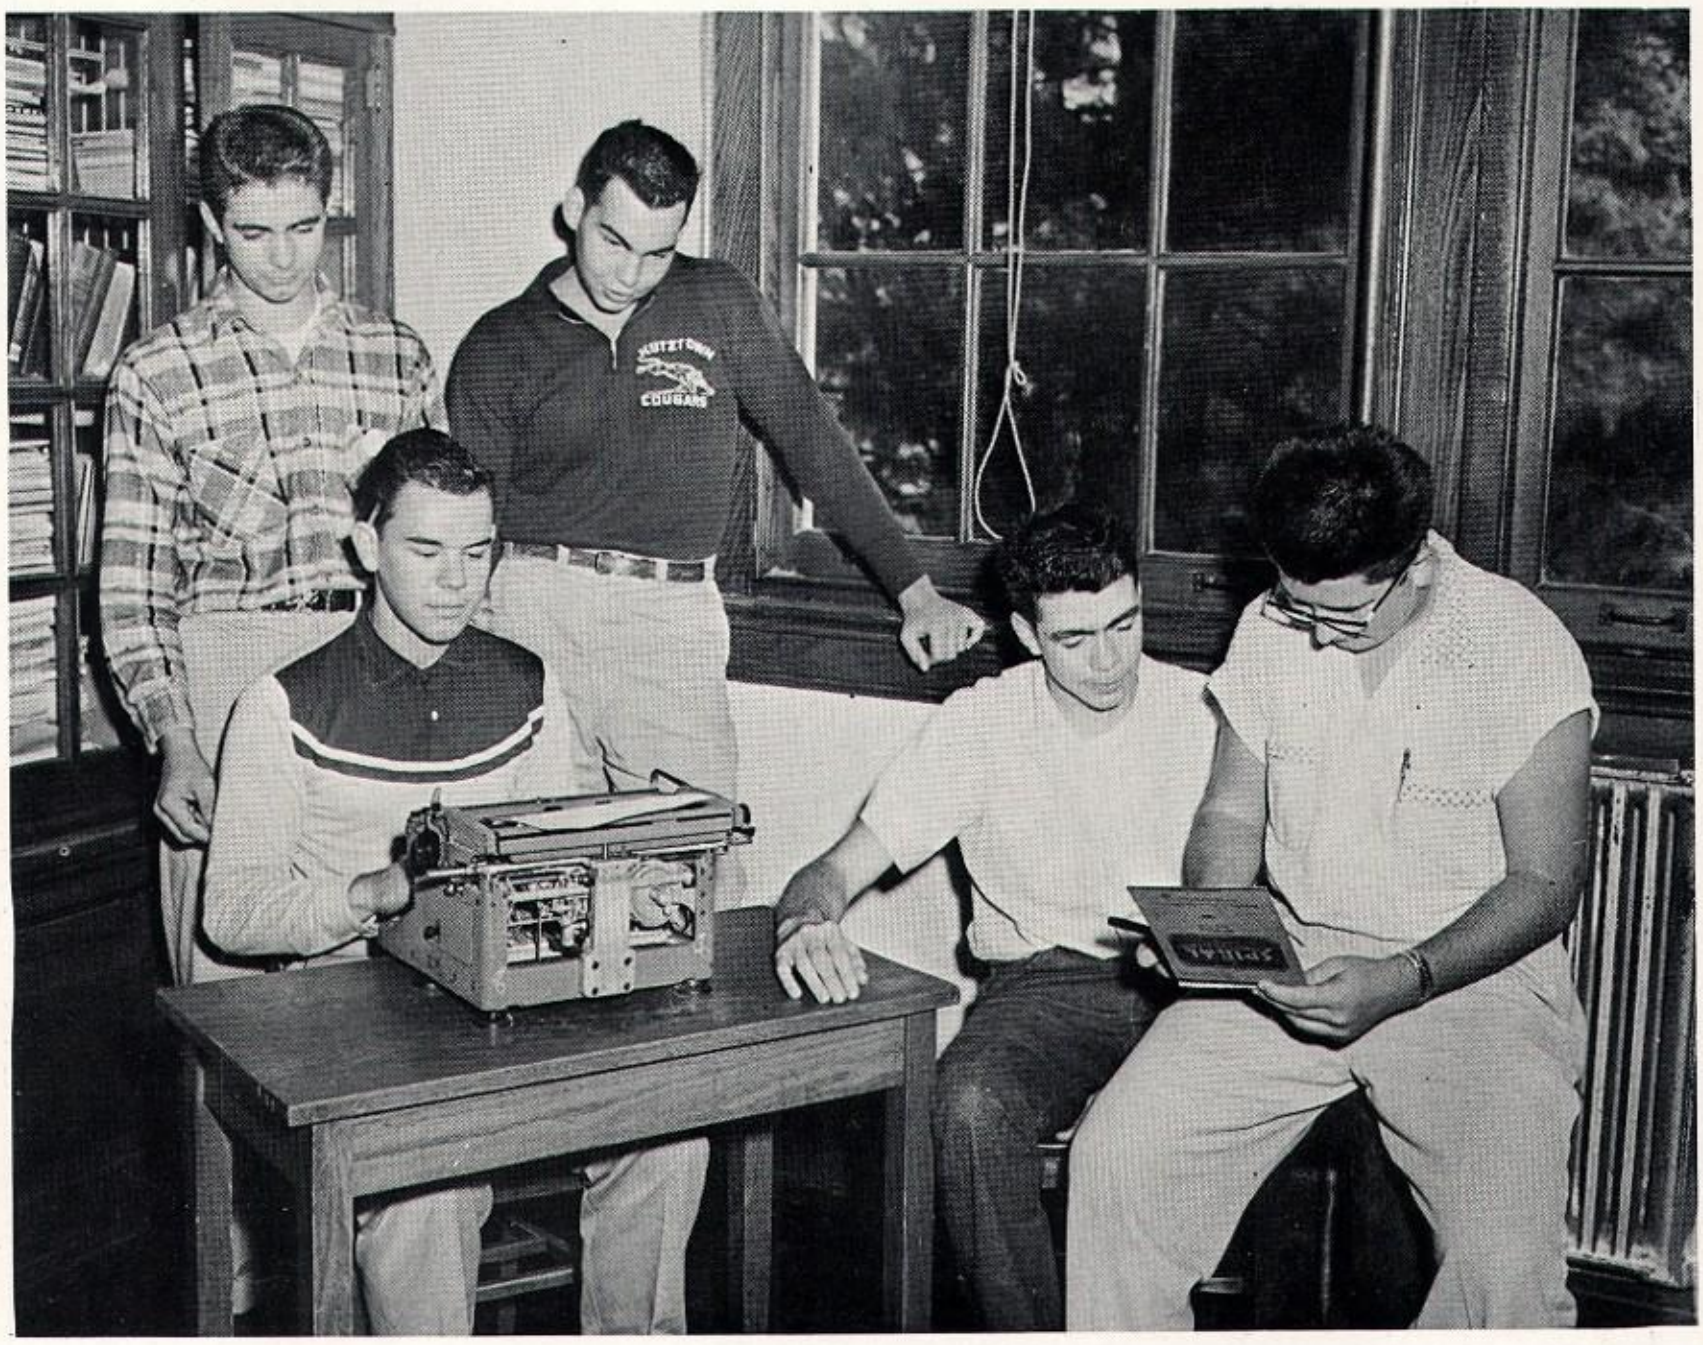
Friends? Romans? Countrymen?

I know a dark, secluded place . . .



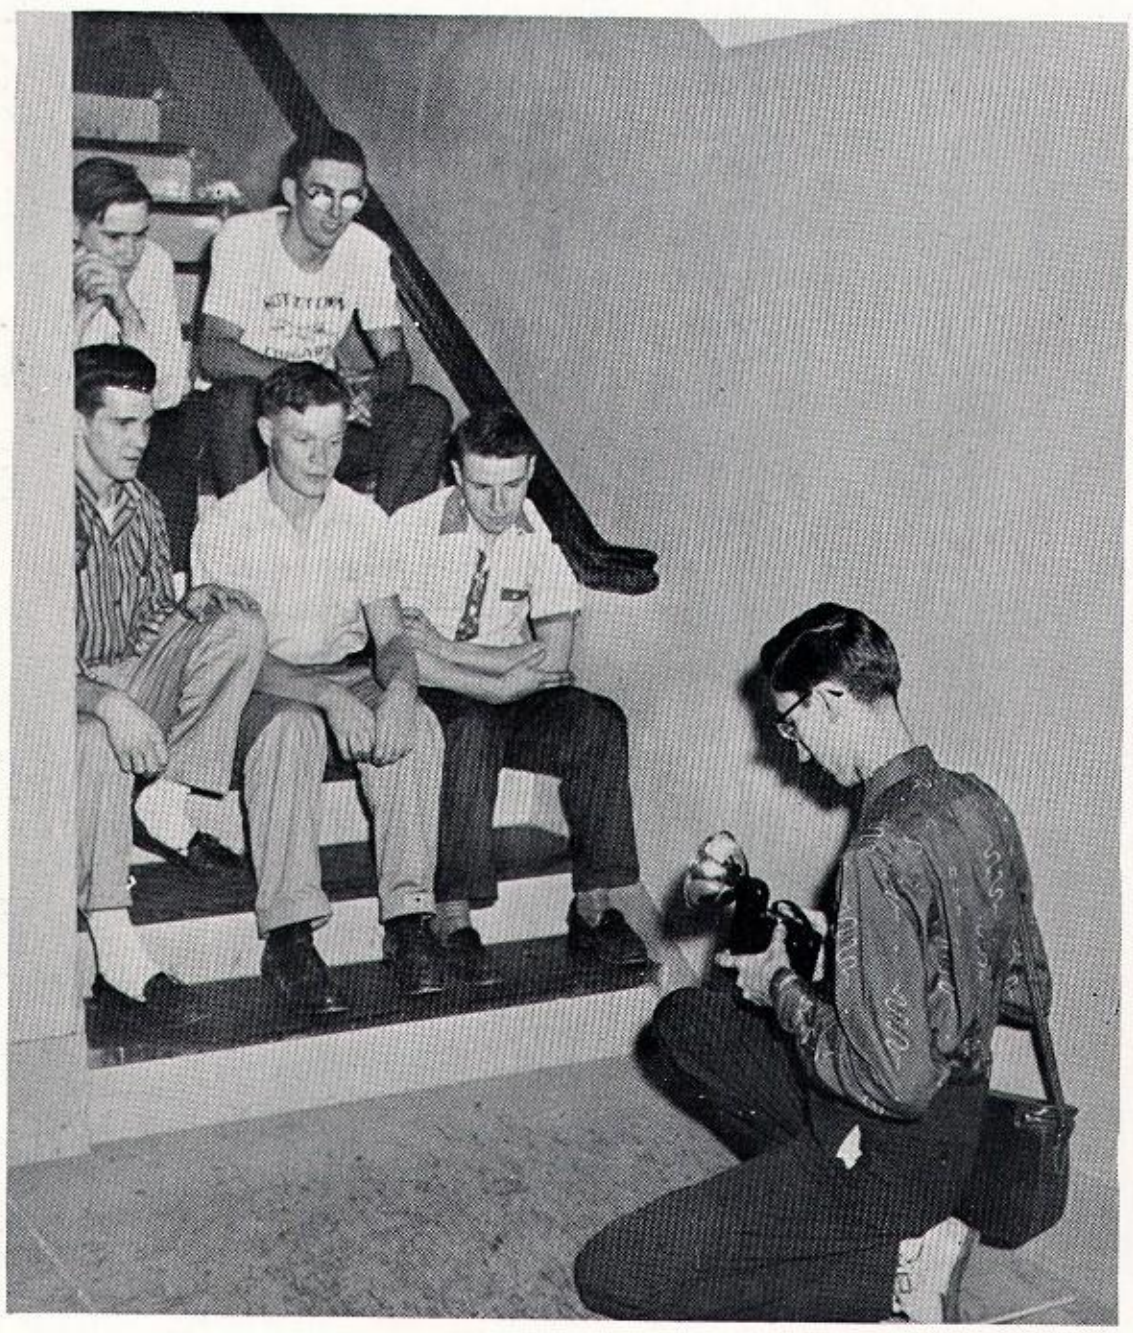
What did you put in that punch?

A song or not a song, that is the question.

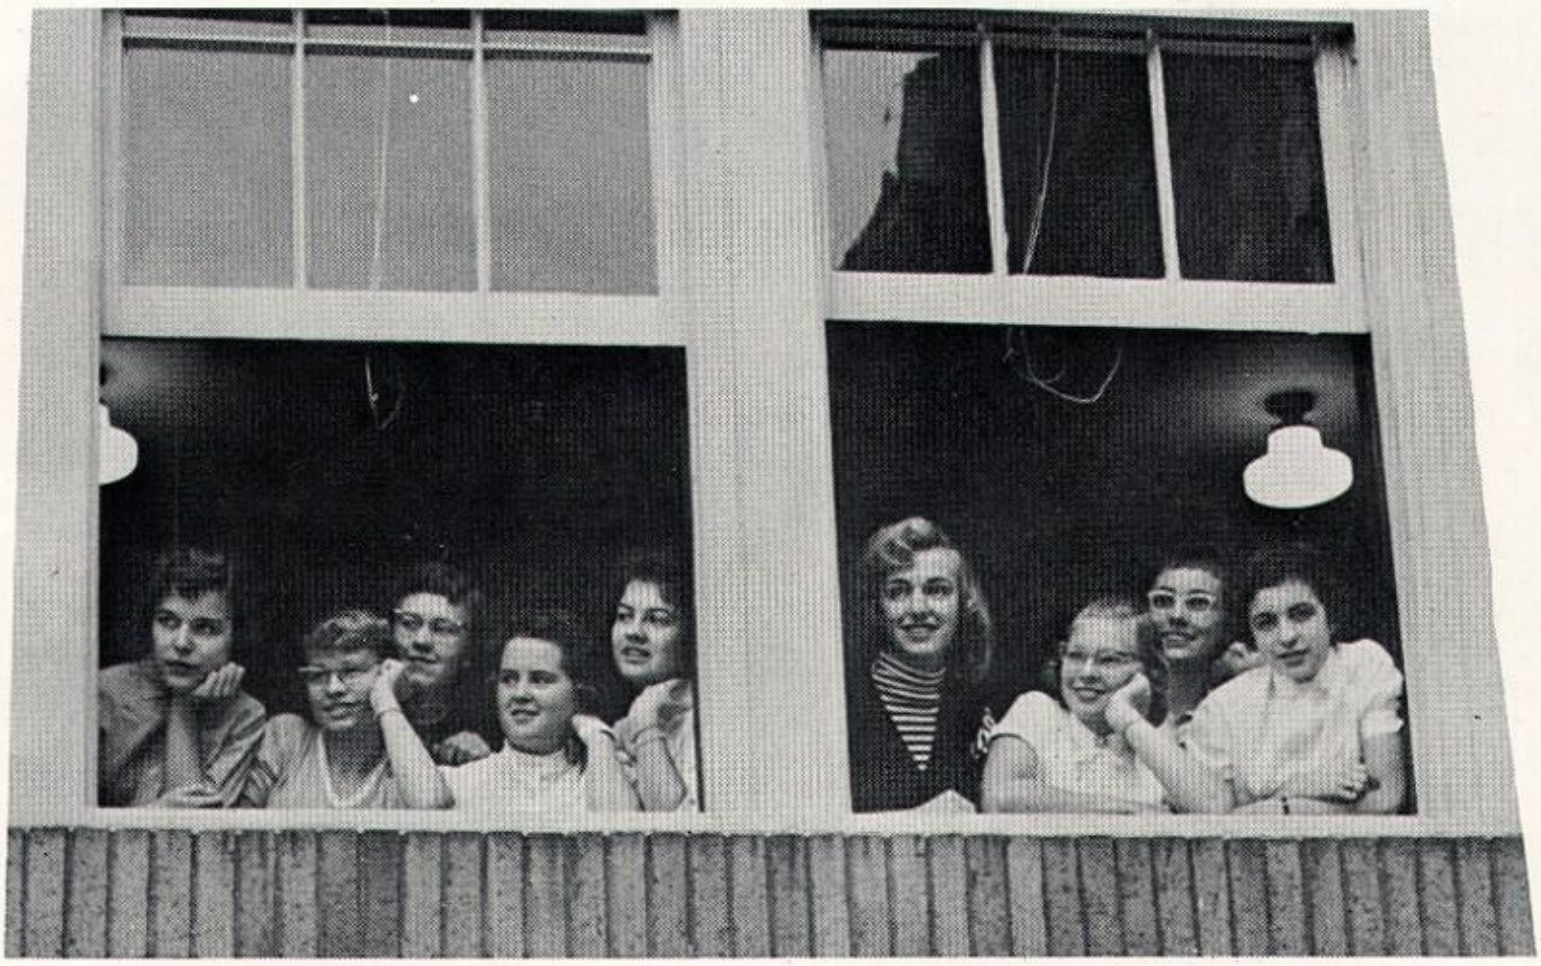


Look, honey, you made a mistake.

That's cause we're nice!



Now flash those brush-a brush-a smiles.



This is my lazy day.

Imagine a girls' sorority house on the campus of a well-known university. It is Saturday night and the girls are ready to go out for the evening. Some are wishing that they could stay in, when suddenly one of the girls is taken ill. A doctor who is called in says that the illness is chicken pox, and he quarantines the entire house for two weeks! When several of the boys who have been working in the house are quarantined also, you can imagine the funny complications and mix-ups that comprised our class play.

During rehearsals we literally roared watching "Nursie" (Curtis Luckenbill) gently sway across the stage while speaking in her high squeaky voice. And another memorable event occurred on the night of our first presentation; Janice, having changed her clothing, came out of the kitchen instead of the bedroom in a beautiful cocktail dress!

Mrs. Laura Lannon, our guidance counselor, and her husband did an excellent job of directing the play. Our thanks also to Mr. Moyer and the K.A.H.S. Band, who rendered the music during the play, and to Mr. Dietrich who was in charge of the program. Many more people helped to make our play a success: the prompters, make-up assistants, sound assistants, set designer, stage crew, program assistants, publicity, property people, usherettes, ticket advisor, and the ticket sellers. We wish to thank all these people for helping to make our class play a success this year.

we'll always remember when . . .

10A ate suckers in Mr. Rohrbach's biology class and he couldn't stand the rattling of the cellophane paper.

Wayne Snyder's trousers split in the back.

Eugene Mertz rang the fire alarm instead of the doorbell.

Charles Werley made an illegal trip to Reading.

The 12B girls were always walking the halls.

The 11V chemistry classes had bombardments of corks and wet sponges.

Phyllis Boyer slid down the bank at a soccer game and spilled a bag of potato chips.

Marie Kunkel showed Charles Wessner where the cow kicked her.

The Vocational guys took field trips on the way to Ag. class.

A certain group of girls fastened the lockers in the hall together with wood.

Gloria Heffner blew up a test tube and the bits of glass flew from one end of the room to the other.

Walter Seidel moved the desks in the homeroom.

The 11B speech class spent most of their time eating.

Charles Green was locked in the broom closet by Calvin, and the door had to be removed to get him out.

The cafe customers went on a strike.

Carolyn Trexler loved brushes in biology class.

Mr. Shankweiler wore short ties.

Karl Bubbenmoyer lost his clothing in the shower room.

Mr. Angstadt lectured about Elvis Presley.

Some girls were in the shower room when there was a fire drill.

Diane Fenstermaker walked into the library and shouted, "Mr. Hehr did it again!" while Mr. Hehr was hiding behind the desk.

we'll always remember when . . .

Peanut butter cookies mysteriously disappeared.

Daisy Epler got her hair cut.

Someone threw a goose egg filled with water across the room.

Faye Kramer and Jolene put whipped cream in the oven to brown it.

Karl Bubbenmoyer had a coat hanger experience in German class.

There was a 10B Rohrbachery.

Nancy Bair walked into the girls' locker room while a visiting basketball team was there.

Patsy Kroninger pulled the chair out from under Rosalie.

Mrs. Held and Mr. Dietrich went on an Easter egg hunt.

Cynthia DeTurk was left to cheer by her "little ol' self."

A note was put on the hall bulletin board about Faye Behm and Mr. ———.

Mr. Angstadt accused Aleatha of sticking her tongue out at him.

Daisy Epler fell asleep in English class.

Classes were livened by Russell DeTurk's antics.

Mr. Hehr ran out of gas.

Eugene wore two different kinds of socks to school and didn't know it.

Diane Fenstermaker and her petticoat parted company.

Mrs. Held asked the question, "Are you with us or against us?"

The juniors ate chips and drank sodas on the front lawn.

Phyllis Stump and Gloria Heffner nearly missed the train to New York City.

Mrs. Dolan had some pretty wild study periods in the library.

There were water battles in 205.

soccer

The Cougar booters closed the season with 7 wins, 2 losses, and 4 ties. With an abundance of juniors and sophomores and only two lettermen, inexperience played a great part in the story of their struggles toward victory.

Irvin Fox was the high scorer with a total of eight goals to his credit. Other team members receiving honors were William Fenstermacher, who was picked to represent KAHS on the Berks County All-Star Soccer Team, and Dennis Moyer, who was presented with the Most Valuable Player Award.

One of the highlights of the season, the greatest margin of victory, was a 6 to 1 win at Mt. Penn. On the other hand, the toughest defeat to take was the 1 to 0 loss at Fleetwood in the waning minutes of the game. Tying the runner-up, Daniel Boone, on their own field was also a moment for soccer fans to remember. Although the Cougars weren't the champions in the true sense of the word, they are still our heroes at KAHS.

When most of the Cougars' veteran players left school at the end of last year, nobody expected a first rate team this year. But they were in for a surprise. With much hard work and expert coaching, Kutztown's long recognized might was again felt by opposing teams. The team and coach certainly deserve our congratulations for such a fine and thrilling season.

At the end of 22 games which included 16 league games, the Cougar scorers were paced by Dave Boger, who led with 325 points. Following him were Scheidt with 285 points and Saul with 212 points.

Statistically, the basketball squad racked up a total of 1256 points to their opponents' 1186 points. The team's average was 57 points per game while their opponents had a 53.8 average.

The Cougars' basketball record this year is 15 wins and 7 defeats.

Our Varsity Cheerleaders, led by their captain, Donna DeTurk, have lifted the spirits of many spectators and team members with enthusiasm and peppy cheers. These girls, who are almost as important to basketball fans as the team itself, spend long hours in practicing and in teaching the cheers to would-be members of the squad. Clad in their striking navy jumpers and white blouses, the efforts of our Cougar Cheerleaders are obvious as they cheer the team to victory.

Our J.V. Cheerleaders displayed much pep and spirit as they cheered at Kutztown's home games. Led by Joyce Biehl, captain, they have written, perfected, and tried new cheers. These cheerers for the baby Cougars are actually understudies for the Varsity Cheerleaders and will do a fine job when the time comes for them to move up into the title role.

baseball

The Cougars, a young club with six sophomores, one junior, and two seniors, started their season early in March by practicing at the Kutztown Park. With only one veteran player, Captain Kenneth Stump, practice became the most important feature of their success or failure. The leading hitters, David Boger and Curtis Luckenbill, showed the way for younger sluggers. Kenneth Stump and Mace Arndt, who displayed exceptional pitching ability at Fleetwood when he gave up only one hit in five and one half innings, ruled the mound. Mr. Silan, the Cougars' mentor, who was looking to the future, said at the middle of the season, "They are doing better than I expected." We, too, feel that with time and practice the team lived up to their traditions of past years.

boys' athletic association

The B.A.A., comprised of boys who are interested in and connected with sports, is supervised by Mr. Silan. It performs several functions during the year; basketball games are sponsored, a ping pong tournament is organized within the club, new athletic equipment is purchased and a Christmas party is held. An All-Sports Banquet finishes the year in glory for all the seniors. At the banquet seniors are awarded for their participation in athletic events. Living up to tradition, the B.A.A. has carried out its duties well this year.

girls' athletic association

The chief aim of the G.A.A. is to promote good sportsmanship at games. Their activities include selling Cougar badges, organizing a swimming team, and their big activity this year, a dance.

Here fishermen congregate to do more than trade tall tales. They learn to make artificial flies that will promote reckless feeding habits even among the most cautious species. Fish stocking, fishing contests, and a two-day climatic trip to Fisherman's Paradise at Bellefonte are major calendar events on the fly-tyer's agenda.

The aim of this club is to give the riflemen of our school an opportunity to show their skill in handling a rifle .The shooter is first taught safety on the range and then how to become an expert shot. This club participates in many team matches and each shooter has an opportunity to win awards and medals for himself.

kutztown area high school band

Under the direction of William S. Moyer, the members of the high school band spent a busy musical season, winter and summer. In addition to their two annual concerts, they can be seen and heard at most of the major activities around Kutztown. Richard Gougler, as faculty supervisor, takes care of the uniforms and handles the band's finances. The band earns additional money by owning and operating a permanent refreshment stand at the fair.

majorettes

These eleven snappy majorettes lead our KAHS Band in the annual Hallowe'en and Memorial Day parades in Kutztown. Their high-stepping marching adds much attraction and eye-appeal to the appearance of the band. Many favorable comments have been provoked by their strutting skill and their striking uniforms.

To be eligible, a student must be a band member. Then during the summer the present majorettes teach the try-outs. At the beginning of the new school term Mr. Moyer, Mr. Gougler, and the head majorettes choose the best twirlers, strutters, and lookers to replace the ones that have graduated. Here are their choices.

The Chorus, open by tryout to all senior high school students, is directed by Mr. Joseph S. Hoover, Jr. The eighty-five members and two accompanists meet twice weekly in preparation for their semi-annual concerts with the band. The theme of the Christmas Concert was carols of foreign countries with Ruth Schoedler rendering a solo in "So Blest A Sight." The Spring Concert included anthems, spirituals, folk songs and show tunes. Solo roles were given to Carolyn Trexler, who sang "Were You There?", and Mike Fuhrman, who rendered "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

By tryout both Carolyn Trexler and Robert Keller were chosen for participation in District Chorus. These KAHS Chorus members represented Kutztown in the County Chorus this year: Phyllis Stump, Phyllis Boyer, Carolyn Trexler, Crystal Leibensperger, Sara Ann Fox, Mike Fuhrman, Robert Keller and Richard Rabenold.

The Stage Crew is busy at assembly programs and other activities taking place in the auditorium. They change sets, shift scenery, check all lighting, and set up risers for the band and chorus. Sometimes these handy-men even make or paint scenery for various productions. Their knowledge of color selection and carpentry help to make many performances successful.

The Sound Crew takes care of any sound requirements around the school. Amplification for classes, assemblies, and plays is handled by the Sound Crew. They regulate bass and treble tone qualities, place the microphones, and create sound effects. These boys have many knockout jobs in the past to be proud of.

The Photography Club, organized in 1955 by Mr. Angstadt, has twelve members. Knowledge of all the latest equipment and its use enables members to develop and print their own pictures. This year's club periods were devoted to the experimentation of reproducing pictures by various methods.

The Art Club is a service club to the school and also does things that the individual members find enjoyable. The members make their projects from clay, plastic, wood, leather and metal. This club and various other pupils painted community store windows for a Halloween display. Under Mr. Dreibelbis' direction the Art Club learns many new and interesting techniques that will profit them in their future.

the cougar staff

The 1957 Cougar is the product of the ideas, skill, and hard work of the yearbook staff. The staff, chosen by the class in their junior year, started getting yearbook experience by helping the 1956 Cougar staff to put their book together. They wrote articles, learned the tricks of layout work, and observed many techniques that come with practice. When the beginning of a new school year rolled around, these recently instructed novices went to work on a book of their own. A commercial photographer took group pictures and the seniors' portraits; the staff photographer meanwhile snapped informal shots around the school. The writing of articles was done by the sports editor and feature writers, and managing the campaign to sell yearbooks was efficiently carried out by the business manager. The art editor drew up all material that could not be set in type, and the typists worked on that which could be set. Directing all these activities, the editor and associate editor spent many hours planning and organizing the book under Mr. Hehr's supervision. Here is the finished effort of the yearbook staff.

tri-hi-y

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character," is the purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y. Teen Talk discussions, constructive movies, talent shows, and service projects occupy club periods. Each year delegates are sent to rallies, the Older Girls' Conference, Officers' Training Programs, and every other year to the model United Nations meetings at Harrisburg. The high spot on the club's calendar is the annual semi-formal dance. This year the theme of the dance was "Mexican Christmas." The beautiful decorations included a mural, a working fountain, three pinatas, real ivy, sombreros, and ponchos. A new and successful idea used this year was dance programs. These added variety and made nice souvenirs.

future homemakers of america

The F.H.A.'s purpose is to prepare girls for their job as future homemakers. Among their activities are the Mother-Daughter Banquet, a formal dance, a fun night, and service projects. Advising this club are Miss Shirley Labe and Mrs. James Trexler.

The F.F.A., consisting of boys in the vocational course, has the purpose of preparing its members to be better farmers. The club's advisers, Mr. Kenneth Staver and Mr. Jack Schonely, help the boys in their activities, which include exhibitions at fairs, square dances, and a Father-Son Banquet.

The Senior Projector Club under the direction of Mr. Gougler, viewed first-run features in the evenings in addition to the usual club periods. Educational films, as well as entertaining films, have helped to give the club a varied program. The equipment is supplied by Mr. Keim.

The Junior Projector Club is an organization for those boys who have no other interests in other club activities. A schedule of films is selected for showing during club periods—financed by dues paid by the members. Incidental to the program is the opportunity provided for a few members to operate the projection equipment under the supervision of Mr. Wagner.

debate team

Resolved that:

The driving age should be raised to 19.

"Yes, the sixteen year olds are not responsible."

"No, the newly organized Driver Education program would be of no use."

These were the arguments confronting the members of the Debate Team at the tri-school debate on March 11, 13, and 14. The team is composed of the following senior high school students:

Negative—Sarah Ann Fox, at Fleetwood; Irma Guinther, at Brandywine; Phyllis Boyer, at Kutztown.

The Debate Team is coached and advised by Mr. Davies.

The Library Assistants are a group of volunteers who assist Mrs. Dolan, the librarian, with her work in the library. The members of this group work at the desk, distribute magazines, mend books, put books back on the shelves, and write the overdue notices. Through helping Mrs. Dolan in these ways, the Library Assistants gain much insight into the workings of a library. Since some of the members plan to be librarians themselves, this experience is very useful.

Left to Right, Row 1: Judith Kindig, Mary Zimmerman, Etta Marie Sittler, Nancy Hummel, Nancy Seltzer, Christine Mest, Connie Parkes, Carol Kuhns, Michael Haring. Row 2: Nancy Ludwig, Donna Dellicker, Elaine Smith, Lenore Wessner, Nancy Phillips, Shirley Reinert, Shirley Hertzog, Sharon Transue, Annabelle Kline, Marcia Herring, Karen Greenawalt.

The Junior High Student Council, patterned after the Senior Student Council, discusses problems of their school and tries to find solutions for them. The Hall Patrol of the Junior High School is also made up of the same members. During Education Week they acted as receptionists for the parents who came to visit the school. Under Mr. Trafford's supervision the Junior High Student Council is the students' representative government in their school life.
